News from the Pews 1st May 2020

I believe it was customary for shepherds in Jesus' time (and even today) who found themselves in the great outdoors and the middle of nowhere close to nightfall, to cobble together a form of sheep fold or pen comprised of briars, branches, stones – anything they could find. Its purpose was a temporary one, but it was something that would keep the sheep together at least during the night time and provide some form of protection from marauding beasts and creatures dangerous to the flock. This construct would have a natural gap left in it to allow access. What is most poignant is that the shepherd would place him or herself in the gap of the fold the doorway or the ลร gatekeeper. Doing so meant that the shepherd would be the first person any harmful creature would encounter between the outside world and the sheep. A courageous place to volunteer ones' self to be!

Jesus had an uncanny knack of drawing upon the most familiar in the lives of the people he addressed. This Sunday's Gospel carries on the theme of hope first given on Easter Sunday which is set to run throughout the days that lead us to Pentecost and the coming of the Holy Spirit upon God's people. By placing himself in the doorway of the fold, Jesus assures us of his protection and vigilance in our lives; promises us a truth about the way to live and enables us – by entering through him – to begin a process within ourselves, at any age or stage, that transforms us and our lives so that we may not only have life, but have it in abundance.

THANK YOU CARE GROUP!

A special thanks to our Care Group who have been busily making telephone calls to parishioners throughout the past weeks of lockdown. I know that your care and constant communication is greatly appreciated.

'GREENING' IN EARNEST!

We are most grateful for all the work done in the past by Felix who has kept the graveyard in Powerscourt in good condition by strimming the graves and clearing the pathways for a good six months of each year. Unfortunately, due to border restrictions, Felix is unable to return to Ireland and his absence is notable in our gravevard at present. This is a time of year where, due to increased sunlight and the odd obliging shower, grasses and shrubs have sprung up almost overnight. Our own restrictions have prohibited a gathering of volunteers to reduce this sudden growth.

Plans are in place to tend to the graveyard in Felix's absence and your patience at this time would be greatly appreciated.

As the graveyard is a place of reflection for many of those who live within the recommended 2K distance, we would be grateful if all dogs could be kept on their leads and any 'deposits' removed for the sake of all those passing.

East Coast Mask Makers

This organisation was started up a month ago by two Enniskerry women, to provide masks for those working with people during the epidemic, who are not in hospitals. There hundred are several volunteers. sewing the masks. supplying the materials. and delivering these to the machinists. The cycling fraternity is among those distributing the finished products where they are needed. There are reauests for masks from.

pharmacies, nursing homes, Garda, respite centres, ambulance dispatch centres, shop keepers, as well as individuals. So far more than 3000 have been delivered from our group alone. They are free and paid for through crowd funding and donations of materials. A real team effort and very well organised. This is my 60th mask. It makes me laugh that my offerings are removed and my new supplies delivered by mysterious forces that I never see!

When the world stayed apart, we stayed together

Create a piece of art, with the help of your family to remember when you all stayed together in 2020.

Ask each person in the house to trace their hand on a piece of paper and cut it out. Then stick each hand together on a blank page and write an inspirational phrase about staying at home, such as:

'When the world stayed apart, together was my favourite place to be, or home is where our family is'

(I am sure you will make a better job of yours than I did but it was fun to make!)

Prayers for Children

DEAR GOD, MY PENCIL CASE IS FILLED WITH MANY COLOURED CHALKS, BUT NOT AS MANY COLOURS AS I SEE UPON MY WALKS! THERE IS NO GOLD QUITE LIKE THE SUN NO SILVER LIKE THE MOON NO GREEN LIKE GRASS TO RUN UPON WITHIN THE AFTERNOON. SO THANK YOU GOD FOR CHALKS AND PAINTS AND BRILLIANT PENCIL CASES BUT EVEN MORE FOR COLOURS THAT YOU PAINT IN OTHER PLACES!

We are aware that there are a small number of parishioners that have no access to internet or email. Could we please make a small request that if you know of anyone who would not have received the service or the 'News From the Pews' and would like it, could you please print and pop it in a friends letter box or let us know and we will post them a copy. We would be very grateful for this.

GALLERY

We thought you might like to know how some of your Parish friends are filling their time. Thank you to all those who submitted photos, they are beautiful.

Our wonderful organist Helen has been spending time knitting these beautiful tiny hats for premature babies. She sends the hats to Crumlin Hospital for the tiny babies in batches.

She has also spent time doing mindful colouring.
